Summary

Which countries require AI developers to disclose safety testing, incidents or training details? Build a comparative tracker of transparency and disclosure rules.

Why it matters

Transparency is often the first rule passed and the foundation for everything else. BlueDot names getting transparency legislation passed as an important problem that needs owners.

What you will have at the end

A public comparison table with sources.

How to start (tick each box as you go)

- [ ] 1. Define exactly the quantity you want to estimate.
- [ ] 2. Find the data sources and note their limits.
- [ ] 3. Do a rough back-of-envelope version first.
- [ ] 4. Refine the input you are least sure about.
- [ ] 5. Present one clear chart and a sentence on uncertainty.
